THE RECHABITE

Welcome to our multi-level palace of surprise and delight, resurrected from the ruins of a century-old heritage hall in the fulcrum point between cultural and entertainment district.

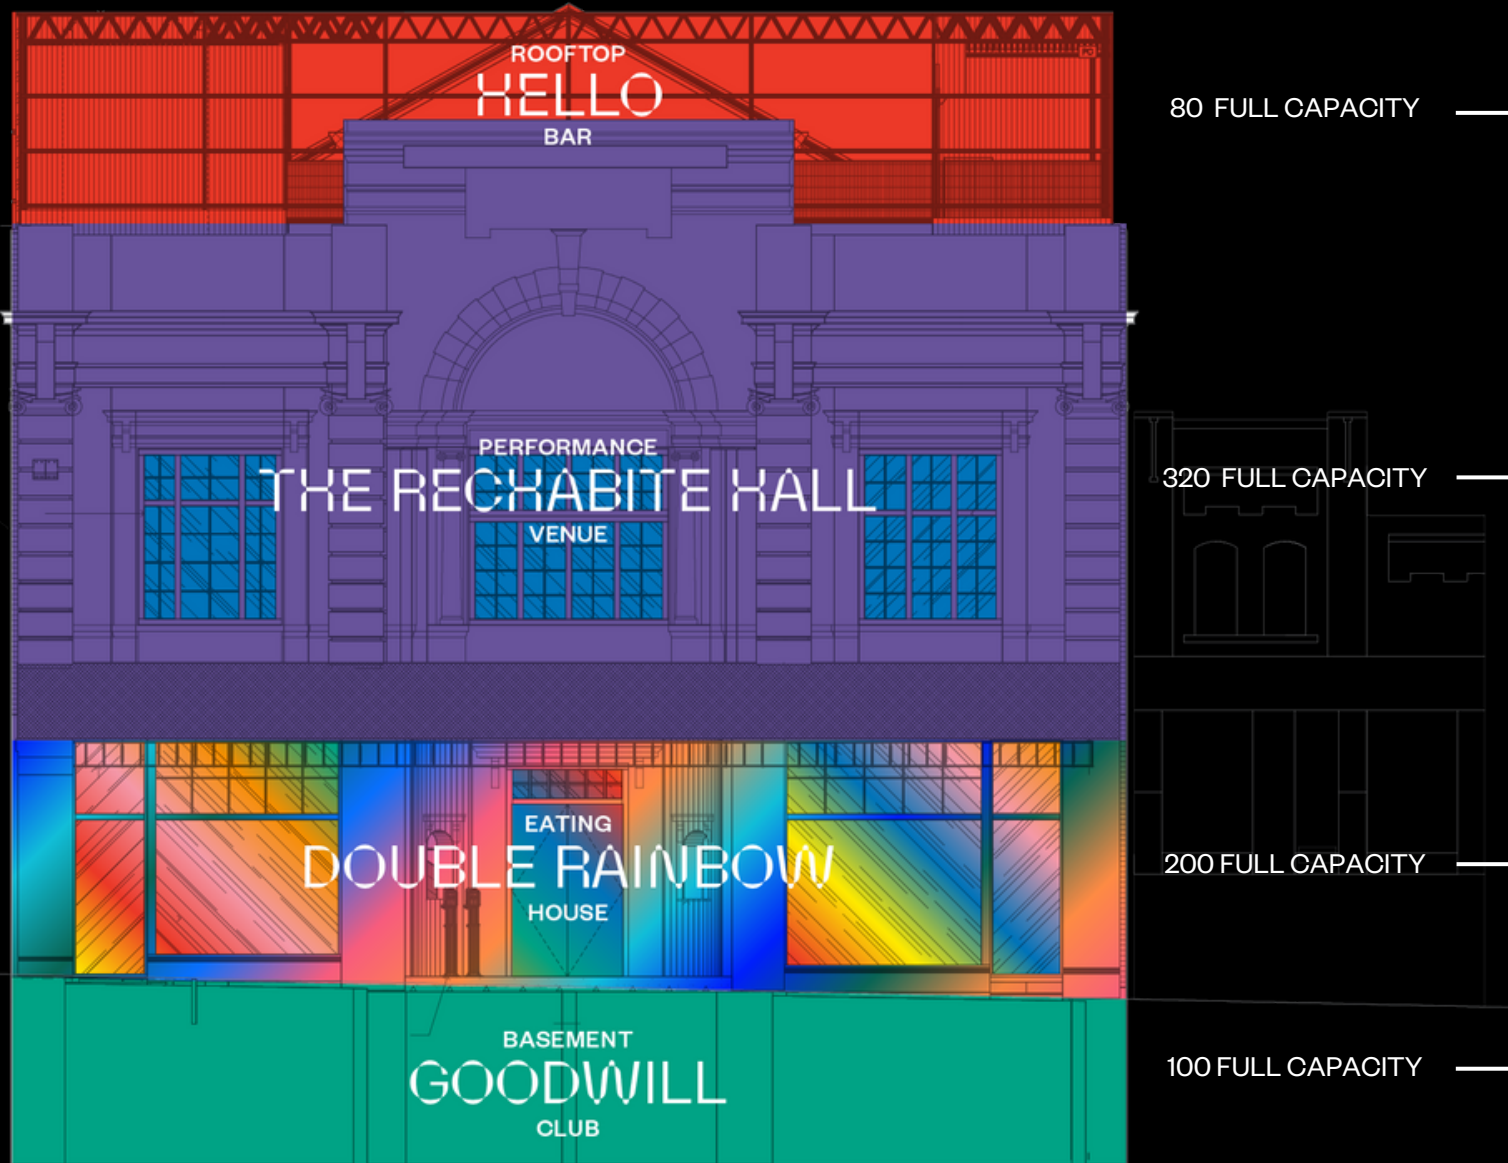

The Rechabite Hall was built by The Independent Order of Rechabites, an international temperance movement that once straddled the globe with their biblical mission to fight the evil influence of liquor. The hall was a place where people gathered in the spirit of community, conviviality, and abstinence from strong drinks. We continue to uphold the first two and categorically ignore the third. Huzzah!

From Goodwill Club in the basement, to our fast and furious restaurant Double Rainbow Eating House, up to Hello Rooftop Bar and into the iconic Rechabite Hall, the complex offers four levels to play and perform where anything can happen and probably will.

The Rechabite acknowledges that we live, love, work, and play on Whadjuk Noongar Boodjar and pay respects to elders past, present, and emerging.
